SENATE AND HOUSE.

Program of the Week's Proceedings of Congress.

APPROPRIATION MEASURES.

Several Bills of Great Importance Coming Up in the Senate—No Business to Be Done Today on Account of Senator Barbour's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Pressing questions of revenues and expenditures are likely to occupy the attention of the senate all the time of the coming week that can be devoted to legislation. Senator Barbour's funeral today will prevent the transaction of any other business until Tuesday. It is an almost unprecedented occurrence to have two senator's funerals (Messrs. Plumb and Barbour) in the same session.

The discussion of the $12,000,000 item added by the senate committee to the naval appropriation bill for a battleship, a harbor defense monitor, four light gunboats and six torpedo boats will be resumed as the first business. That bill disposed of $22,740,000 river and harbor bill will follow. These two measures and the considerations of revenue and increased taxation which they involve will probably occupy the balance of the week and leave little room for the special orders. These are, first, a bill abolishing compulsory state pilotage, a measure in which Mr. Frye, chairman of the committee on commerce, takes strong interest, which he has unsuccessfully tried to push through the last three congresses and which he now desires the senate to take early action upon, as it is his purpose to leave the city on private business as soon as disposed of.

Next comes the foreign relations bill to give United States courts jurisdiction of violations of the treaty rights of aliens which runs counter to the state rights theories of some of the senators and will be opposed on that ground.
After that Mr. George, of Mississippi, has a notice on the paper of an intention to call up a bill appropriating $25,000 for the establishment of five experimental silk culture stations, a measure which has slim chance of passing under existing conditions. Last on the list is the bill reported from the judiciary committee by Mr. Vest, of Missouri, revising and adjusting the compensation of all the district attorneys of the United States, an important measure which can scarcely get through at the advanced stage of the session.

If the present intentions of the chairman of the committee on appropriations are carried out, the house, this week will devote all its time to the consideration of appropriation bills.

Mr. Holman said yesterday that in view of the funeral of the late Senator Barbour, at 1 o'clock this afternoon, he did not expect the house to transact any business of importance before Tuesday. Then, he would ask the house to resume consideration of the sundry civil bill, continuing from day to day until a conclusion is reached. Then he would bring up the postoffice and fortification bill in the order named. It was possible, he said, but not probable, that all three of them would be disposed of in the house before the week ends.

Before the consideration of the sundry civil bill has proceeded very far Mr.
Livingston, Democrat, of Georgia, will propose an amendment to the section covering the appropriations for the mints, providing for a free coinage of silver. This amendment Mr. Bland offered one day last week but afterwards withdrew, for the reason that it then met the criticism that it did not pertain to the subject under discussion. There is but little likelihood of a general silver debate being precipitated thereby as the amendment will doubtless be met by a point of order and be rejected on the ground that it is not germane to the measure. When the sundry civil bill has been disposed of Mr. Hatch will endeavor to bring up his anti-option bill, but, as stated, Mr. Holman expects the house to support him in his demand for consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill.

The resolution to expunge one of the speeches of Representative Walker, Republican, of Massachusetts, because of alleged unparliamentary not to say uncomplimentary expressions regarding his mugwump colleagues from that state, is the special order for today, but it will probably fail to come up for want of time; what will become of it, in that case cannot be definitely stated. Another postponement is the most likely solution.

DOUBLE HANGING.

Two Negroes Meet Death on the Same Scaffold at Nashville, Illinois.

NASHVILLE, Ills., May 16.—Tom Davis and Henry Dickerson, negroes, and brothers-in-law, were hanged in the jail yard here at 11:25 o'clock Saturday morning.

Their Crime.

On Sunday morning, December 27, 1891, Marcus Heitsch, a Russian Jew peddler, was found dead a short distance south of the cemetery at Richview. The body of the peddler was horribly butchered. The pockets of his clothing were turned inside out, showing that the purpose of the murder was robbery. Davis was arrested and made a confession implicating Dickerson as being an accomplice in the crime. The jury found both men equally guilty of the murder.

Destructive Storms in Pennsylvania.

CARLEISLE, Pa., May 16.—Rain, accompanied by a terrible wind, passed over this valley Sunday morning, and from the reports received last night the loss will be very heavy in the surrounding country. In this city a photograph gallery, trees and a circus tent were blown over and other damage done in the vicinity.

SENATOR BARBOUR DEAD.

Sudden Demise of the Virginia Statesman in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Senator Barbour, of Virginia, died suddenly and quite unexpectedly of heart failure, at his residence, Second and B streets, N. E., Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock. There was no premonition of the tragic end. He was in the senate Friday, as usual, and in the morning attended a meeting of the committee on the affairs of the District of Columbia.

Biographical.

John S. Barbour was born in Culpepper county, Va., Dec. 29, 1830, pursued a course of study at the University of Virginia, and graduated from the law school there in 1852, practiced law in his native county, and went to the legislature from that county in 1857, where he served four consecutive terms; was elected president of the Orange and Alexandria railway in 1852, and held the office until the road was absorbed by the

JOHN S. BARBOUR, Virginia Midland in 1883. Mr. Barbour was a member of the house in the Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth congresses, and succeeded Mr. Riddleberger in the senate in 1885.

His term as senator would not have expired until March 3, 1895.

Mr. Barbour had resided continuously in Washington for a great many years and was as highly esteemed by the people of this city as he was honored by the citizens of Virginia.

Senator Barbour left no immediate family. His wife's sister, Miss Dangerfield, presided over his household, and a brother resides in Culpepper, Va. Sergeant-at-arms Valentine, of the senate, is in charge of the funeral arrangements.

DEFECTIVE SWITCH.

A Fast Train on the Norfolk and Western Road Wrecked.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., May 16.—The fast train on the Norfolk and Western road, composed of one sleeper, two coaches, a baggage and an express car, which leaves here at 12:40 a. m., was wrecked twelve miles south of here shortly after 1 o'clock Sunday morning by jumping the track and dashing into three loaded freight cars which were standing on a siding. Conductor Hays was killed instantly and ten passengers were seriously injured, two of whom will die.

All these were in one of the day coaches. Those in the other cars only sustained a severe shock. Several legs and arms were broken and one passenger had to have a leg amputated. The injured, all men, were brought back to Hagerstown where some lie at the Hotel Hamilton and some at the Baldwin House. One coach and one freight car were smashed to splinters. Late in the afternoon a jury was impaneled who declared the accident due to a defective switch.

Among the injured are John Hawke, aged nineteen, of Lewistown, Pa., badly injured, will likely die; J. P. Hawke, father of the above, cut about head;
William Eslinger, of West Fairfield, Pa., cut about head and body, badly lacerated; B. B. I. Chaney, of St. James College, Md., and a man supposed to be D. A. Rogers, of Buchanan, Va., badly hurt. Conductor William Hays, killed, is from Philadelphia.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

The Next National Gathering Will Probably Be in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 16.—The Commercial club has been informed that pledges in favor of Indianapolis as the site of the next national encampment of the Grand Army have been received from Robert B. Beath, past national commander, who lives in Philadelphia; L. T. Dickason, past department commander, of Illinois, and from the departments of Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa. Colonel Walker feels certain, he says, that Indianapolis is to get the next encampment.

Assurances have also been received that Chicago will not bid for the encampment during the time of the world's fair. Secretary Fortune will officially call the attention of the club to the reports at the next meeting of the directors. At the last meeting of the state encampment a resolution was adopted favoring a change of plan, so as not to have a banquet at Washington.
This has proved a heavy item of expense, and as Washington has raised less than Indianapolis for the entertainment of the encampment, the banquet will probably be abandoned.

Minister Fava Arrives.

NEW YORK, May 16.—Baron Fava, the Italian minister to the United States, arrived here yesterday on the La Gascogne.
His arrival was made the occasion of a demonstration by the Italian residents in the city. The steamer Laura M.
Starin left quarantine at 8 o'clock in the morning with 800 Italians on board, under the direction of Charles Barsotti, editor of Il Progresso Italo Americano, and president of the Italian chamber of commerce. The Christoforo Colombo Monument association, the Italian consul general and various civic and military societies were included in the party.
Minister Fava was received with enthusiasm. Baron Fava left for Washington on the 3 o'clock train.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 16.—Clemens Reitz, one of the wealthiest men of this section, has received a letter from unknown parties threatening that if he did not place $500 in a spot named within seven days he would be killed with a dynamite bomb. This is the third letter of the kind which has fallen into the hands of the police.

CHINESE EXCLUSION.

What an American Missionary in China
Says on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—A letter addressed by Dr. D. J. McGowan, for many years an American missionary in China, to Secretary Blaine through the United States consul general at Shanghai and the United States legation at Peking dated March 31, is as follows:

Sir—Lest it be considered presumptuous in me a private citizen in China to address the chief of the department of state on the subject of Chinese immigration plead in extenuation that in respect of age and in respect of period of residence I am the senior American resident in China.

So far as I am capable of understanding the view which China takes of the situation she does not desire to see the United States flooded by her people.
Certainly she has little reason to desire such a consummation, inasmuch as this empire already possesses vast regions in the north of fertile virgin soil, while in the tropics limitless regions invite immigration from her southern provinces.
Moreover, Chinamen who return from a few years residence in the United States are less easily controlled by the mandarin than those who have never been exposed to the operation of revolutionary ideas. What China has a right to demand, and what our country is bound to concede, is to be treated as an equal.
Self-respect, the duty she owes to her people, and the position she desires to maintain among civilized states, impose on her the necessity of contending for reciprocal concessions.

In view of these considerations it seems that the unsatisfactory and anomalous relations which now exist might be corrected by an immigration reciprocity treaty fixing the number of citizens of each state to be admitted to reside in the other. Indubitable difficulties will attend the solution of the im-brolio on these lines but the statesmanship of the two countries is not likely to find them insurmountable. A modus vivendi can surely be devised on some basis of this kind. As regards Americans in China they do not apprehend that threats of reprisals that they have heard of well founded and yet they are solicitous that the land in which they reside should feel that its honor is not impugned by their country.
With unprecedented unanimity, citizens, officials, secular and missionary concur in these views.

LEVEE GIVES WAY.

Four Thousand Acres of Farming Lands Submerged.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—The levee on the Illinois side gave way yesterday afternoon and 4,000 acres of farming land are submerged. The water flooded the outlying suburbs of East St. Louis, the jockey club track being ten feet under water. Many of the horses were rescued with difficulty.

The squatters up the river are suffering terribly. A dwelling came down the river shortly after 3 o'clock and struck the abutment of the Merchants' bridge, doing considerable damage. The body of a white man was seen passing through the arch shortly afterward.
The tracks of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad are submerged.

Farmer Fouly Murdered.

ST. MARY'S, O., May 16.—P. C. Hen-nesy, a well-to-do farmer of Shelby county, south of this city twelve miles, was found hanging to a limb of an oak tree in his barn yard Saturday morning by his wife, who gave the alarm. The coroner being sent for, he was cut down and removed to the house for examination. Several bad cuts about the breast and back were found, and the coroner gave the verdict that he was stabbed and then hung to the tree to cover the crime. But there is no clew to the guilty parties, and his folks claim that he had no enemies that they ever knew. There will be an investigation, and it is thought it will result in some of his near neighbors being implicated.

Heartless Mother.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 16.—It was reported to the police Saturday that Mrs.
Harry Felker, returning from a visit to Taylorsville Friday evening, had left her two babies, aged six months and two years, with Mrs. Alfred Leasure, and then disappeared. She was driven from Taylorsville by James Shraek, who keeps a saloon on Fulton street, Columbus, and it is thought she may have gone away with him. Her sister, Miss Anna Dutro, who was visiting friends in Newark, disappeared mysteriously last March, and the only trace of her was a letter postmarked Pittsburg, in which she said she would never return home.
The father is an old steamboat engineer and respected citizen.

Color Line in Labor Circles.

NEW ORLEANS, May 16.—The color line must be drawn in labor circles or the Federation of Labor will lose most of its white members in this city. The white organizer was Friday night ordered out of the hall where a new union was being organized, and a negro performed the duties of organizer. President Gompers will be appealed to. It is rumored that a duel will be the outcome.

High Officials in the Ring.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., May 16.—A royal commission is hearing the charges made by Mr. Schey against Mr. Eddy, chief commissioner for railways for New South Wales, Mr. Eddy being accused of ordering engines to the value of $2,500,000 of an English ring without inviting tenders. Mr. Schey declared that the ring includes ex-Premier Parkes, Sir Saul Samuel and other high officials.

BROOKLYN, May 16.—Mary Larson, seventy-one years old, committed suicide yesterday. Some time ago she was found bound and gagged, and claimed to have been robbed of $5,000, but the police failed to find a clew to substantiate her story.

A STAGE ROBBED.

Three Men Shot, One of Them Fatally.

DESPERATE WORK OF TWO MEN.

The Wells-Fargo Messenger Shot, and Dies Later—The Two Robbers Secure the Treasure Boxes, Supposed to Contain Probably $20,000—One of the Robbers Wounded.

REDDING, Cal., May 16.—A stage robbery and murder occurred near here about 6 o'clock Saturday evening. The Redding and Shasta stage had reached the top of the long grade, five miles above Redding, on the river road, when it was stopped by the same two high-waymen who stopped it Tuesday evening last. John Boyce was driving, with a man named G. J. Suhr on the box beside him. Buck Montgomery, the messenger, was on the back seat inside. A man armed with a shotgun, and wearing a red bandana, ordered the stage to stop, and the passenger on the box to throw up his hands. He then ordered the box to be thrown out.

The driver complied, but the messenger inside fired upon the highwayman, who dropped to his knees, and then, with his partner hid in the bush, returned the fire with rifles. The messenger was shot in the naval and several more bullets were lodged in the seat.
The passenger received three buckshot in the right leg and the driver got five buckshot near the right knee. The robbers then disappeared with the boxes.
The team started to run, but George Suhr held the lines. Dr. Stevenson and his wife, who were going to Shasta, met the stage. The passenger was kneeling down in the boot driving. The driver was operating the brakes while the messenger lay in blood inside. Stevenson took charge of the team and drove two miles to Middle Creek, while his wife drove to Redding for Dr. Lowery.

A reporter visited the scene and found Montgomery in a dying condition at the Hotel Middle Creek, with his wife beside him. The driver and Suhr were not seriously hurt. The Wells-Fargo boxes are supposed to contain rich treasure, some placing the estimate as high as $20,000. The messenger died at 10 o'clock Saturday night. The highway-men are supposed to be old convicts. A large posse is out searching for them.
One of them was undoubtedly wounded.
The members of the local militia company went out to aid in the search, and one of them, George Holsworth, was accidentally shot and painfully wounded.

CLOUD BURST.

It Causes a Sailboat to Capsize and Three People are Drowned.

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—At 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a cloud burst struck this city causing the death of three men who with two companions were in a sailboat on the Delaware river.
The men drowned were Lewis Bueno, nineteen years; Charles Andero, nineteen years, and George Roulit, twenty-four. Their companions who were rescued were Joseph Borgen, seventeen years, and Lenny Settaro, seventeen years.

The party set out early in the afternoon for Gloucester. They went to Greenwich Point and procured a small sailboat to take them across the river.
This was about 5 o'clock and scarcely a cloud was visible in the sky. By the time they had reached the channel, without warning the storm came upon them, striking the boat with the sail still set squarely abeam capsizing it in a second.

The men had not even enough time to take hold of the little craft so as to cling to it until help could reach them. The unfortunate sank and were swept away.
Their bodies have not yet been recovered.
Morgan managed to struggle to the boy and grabbed Settaro as he was sinking.
The others sunk like lead.

Bold Raid by Horse Thieves.

ST. MARY'S, O., May 16.—Horse thieves made another raid at Clark's Hill, Dark county, Friday night, taking from the barn of Herman Fleming a fine roan mare, and also a young horse from Thomas Clark's barn. This is the second lot of horses which has been stolen from this section of the country in the past five weeks, and the farmers are up with arms, and are sleeping in their barns with loaded guns waiting for the robbers, but they do their work so successfully that the farmers can not catch them. The robbers were traced to Arcanum and there all trace was lost.
It is thought that an organized band of horse thieves is operating the country.

Miners Horribly Scalded.

LEADVILLE, Colo., May 16.—An accident occurred in the Penrose mine Saturday afternoon. The steam pipes on the 315-foot level burst and filled the level with steam, scalding the men horribly. A. M. Corwiner, William Little and James Murray were hurt the worst, and presented a horrible appearance, the flesh on their faces rolling up in great chunks. Four physicians are attending them. Their sufferings are intense, and their cries can be heard for over a block away.

Killed While Hunting.

COLUMBUS, Ind., May 16.—Homer Dallas, postmaster of Spearsville, Brown county, Dr. Mosler and the latter's seventeen-year-old son were out in the woods squirrel hunting Saturday. One of the party shot a squirrel, but the animal clung to the tree before dropping to the ground. Young Mosler, with a cocked gun, stepped behind Dallas to get another shot at the squirrel, when his gun accidentally went off, killing Dallas.

COLUMBUS, O., May 16.—An unknown tramp, or eddler, was run down by an extra Pa-handle freight near Black Lick Saturday and instantly killed.

"Captain Scott's dog, which caught the coon both going and coming, has his imitator in the modern advocate of protection," says T. E. W. in the New York World. "Here is a model 'tariff picture' from the New York Press, which furnishes nearly all the 'original' matter for the protection editors and talkers: The McKinley bill raised the duty on hay from $2 a ton to $4, as a result of which changes our imports of hay declined from 11,505 tons in April, 1890, to 2,389 tons in April, 1891, thus turning over to the American farmer the market for 9,116 tons. But did the price to the consumer go up? No; the imports for April, 1890, averaged $8.25 per ton, while those for April, 1891, averaged $6.65 per ton.

"This is designed to catch the fool farmer's vote for protection on the ground that the McKinley bill secured for him a market here for 9,116 tons of hay, while at the same time seeks to catch the consumer's vote on the ground that it has driven down the price the farmer receives for his hay by $1.60 per ton. To the carnal mind these two facts, if they are facts, should be kept apart when presented to the farmer, but the Press probably understands the mental calibre of the farmer who believes in protection. It has the highest circulation among Republican newspapers, and it has secured them by 'tariff pictures' like this.

"Our imports of hay for 1891 were 58,242 tons, worth $445,461; our exports were 28,066 tons worth $470,228. Our exports were from Atlantic seaports to Great Britain; our imports all from Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. "We got enough money by selling 28,066 tons to England to buy 58,242 tons from Canada and still have a good profit. We traded ha for hay—28,000 tons for 58,000 tons. The profit in the trade came from saving our freight on the hay from the Atlantic seaboard to the northwestern boundary line of the United States. Sea freights were cheap; railroad freights dear. It was 'cheaper' to freight the money than to freight the hay, even with the fine of $4 per ton imposed on all hay bought the other side of the Canada line.

"If the Atlantic coast farmer had sent his hay to Montana and North Dakota it would have cost at least $30 per ton freight. To send the hay to England and the money received for it to Montana and North Dakota did not cost over $3 per ton. There was still a fine of $4 to pay per ton, but there was $23 per ton saved by the trading, and this $23 divided between the Atlantic coast and North-western farmer.

"The farmers in Montana and Dakota who wanted the hay would have had to give thirty days extra work per ton, if we forbade importation of Canada hay and sent them our exported hay. As it is, the 'protection' of the McKinley bill has raised the burden on them from two days extra labor to four days extra labor—from $2 to $4 per ton tax on the Canadian hay exchanged for our hay at the rate of two tons for one—through ocean freightage."

The Myalls.

The Paris Kentuckian says: "Our old ex-Bourbon, ex-Legislator friend, Edward Myall, who has for some weeks been visiting his old home from California, furnishes us with the following history of the Myall family in America:

"Edward Myall arrived in Kentucky in 1840. He has now nine living children and thirteen grandchildren.

"Eneas Myall came to Kentucky in 1842. He has now seven living children, seventeen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

"George Myall came to Kentucky in 1842. He has seven living children and eleven grandchildren.

"Jonathan Myall, who came to Kentucky in 1846, has three living children and four grandchildren.

"Jonas Myall arrived in 1846. He has three living children.

"Moses Myall and daughter came to Kentucky in 1849.

"Ed. Myall, Jr., came to Kentucky in 1853—has two children and two grandchildren.

"A re-union of the Myall family was held at Mayslick, Mason County, on Thursday, May 5th, at the home of William R. Myall. About seventy-five were present."

THE PRECINCT MEETINGS.

Result of the Democratic Conventions Saturday Afternoon—Little Interest Taken.

Precinct meetings were held by the Democrats of Mason County Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to select delegates to two county conventions to-day—one at 11 a. m. to choose delegates to the Senatorial convention and the other at 2 p. m. to select delegates to the State convention. But little interest was manifested in the two Maysville precincts.

In No. 1, Commonwealth's Attorney Saltee called the house to order in the absence of Geo. W. Rogers, Committee-man. Mr. Saltee appointed M. F. Marsh temporary Secretary, and the temporary organization was made the permanent, on motion of Major Chenoweth.

On motion the Chair appointed Colonel W. W. Baldwin, James W. Fitzgerald and M. A. O'Hare a committee to select delegates. They reported the following: Col. W. W. Baldwin, J. H. Saltee, R. B. Lovel, L. W. Robertson, J. W. Fitzgerald, Thos. R. Phister, Thomas Chenoweth, C. D. Newell, M. F. Marsh, W. T. Cummins, F. P. O'Donnell, J. W. Alexander, Geo. W. Rogers, C. B. Pearce, E. W. Fitzgerald, T. M. Pearce, A. C. Respass, J. L. Chamberlain, T. A. Keith, P. P. Parker, Geo. W. Sulser, C. B. Poyntz, C. C. Dobyns, C. C. Owens, J. F. Frazee, A. F. Respass, M. A. O'Hare.

On motion, the report was adopted and the delegates were instructed to represent the precinct in both county conventions to-day. The meeting then adjourned.

PRECINCT NO. 2.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. N. Kehoe, Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Mayor Pearce was nominated for Chairman but asked to be excused. Mr. Robert L. Baldwin was nominated and unanimously chosen Chairman. M. J. McCarthy was elected Secretary.

On motion J. N. Kehoe, E. L. Worthington and John C. Lovel were appointed a committee to select delegates. The committee reported the following:

R. L. Baldwin, E. E. Pearce, Sam. Perrine, John L. Whitaker, J. C. Everett, M. J. McCarthy, Walter S. Watson, G. S. Wall, John Mangan, William Pepper, R. G. Parry, James L. Chamberlain, John J. Perrine, Mark Kehoe, J. C. Lovel, James N. Kehoe, E. L. Worthington, John T. Parker.

Mr. Kehoe moved that the delegates selected represent the precinct in both county conventions to-day. Adopted, and the meeting adjourned.

The Curley Real Estate.

The real estate of the late T. J. Curley was sold Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Master Commissioner Cole, under decree of the Mason Circuit Court. The residence on Fourth street, west of Market, was put up first. It was bought by Mr. L. C. Blatterman, the price paid being $3,030.

There was some active bidding for the three-story business house opposite the State National Bank. It brought $9,125, Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald, the plumber, being the successful bidder. The two pieces brought $12,155.

Mrs. Reid's Entertainment.

"A large and fashionable audience greeted Mrs. Reid and class at the opera house, and all agree in pronouncing it a most delightful affair," says the Winchester Sun.

Twenty of Maysville's lovely young ladies will give the same program here next Friday evening at the opera house. A march with fancy steps and the beautiful delarte movements will be interesting features of the evening's entertainment. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

When Traveling.

Whether on pleasure bent, or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50 cents and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

Attention!

All members of Maysville Division No. 6, U. R. K. of P., are requested to meet at armory this Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Work in the Sir Knight rank, and other important business. Full dress.

MINERVA.

Miss Pearl Clark, of Augusta, is here visiting. G. Y. Reynolds had a valuable calf killed last week. Work on the new M. E. Church has already begun.

Mrs. Alice Forsythe has been visiting in Bracken this week. Thomas S. Hawes, the Minerva poet, is visiting in Augusta.

The Minerva Cooking Club No. 1 held their last meeting of the season at the home of Miss Mattie Bateman last Thursday night. A delightful time was had by all present. Among those who attended were Misses Minnie Boyd, Mollie K. Boyd, Mollie Dietrich, Fannie Grigson, Mae Gabbey, Pearl Clarke, Lida and Bettie Frazee, Lou McCannagh, Mrs. Alice Forsythe and Messrs. Thornt King, John Evans, Lee Boyd, James Toliver, Thomas S. Hawes, Charles Asbury and U. B. Watson.

MAYS LICK.

The McAtee family left us last week. We had some dull, cool, cloudy weather last week. Fine time for cut worms.

There are no society ladies on the move at this time that we know of. Friends will kindly report, if any.

R. A. Carr, proprietor of the Magnolia Mills, Maysville, was here last Thursday, mixing among his old friends.

Professor F. H. Cappa left us last Thursday for Moorefield, Nicholas County, where he will tune up the boys and girls.

Mrs. Anna Wilson and Miss Mamie Scott are at home again. They spent the winter in New Mexico and California.

There is some talk of getting up a sanitarium in this place for the benefit of country folks. Our fellow citizens scarcely ever indulge—except in company, out of company or by themselves.

George Brown, colored, who has been boarding at the Kirk Hotel, Maysville, came up a few days since, and got a little disorderly again and Judge Worthington sent him back to board out a thirty-dollar fine.

Mrs. William S. Mitchell, after a lingering and painful illness, passed away last Friday evening at her home near Helena Station. Her husband and four sons survive her. The funeral took place at the Christian Church in this place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Elder F. M. Tindler officiating.

Mexican Railway Concession.
CITY OF MEXICO, May 16.—A concession has been granted for a new standard gauge railway to run from this city to the Pacific port, Zihuatanejo, south of Manzanillo. It is reported that this line may be built with a view to amalgamating it with the old Vera Cruz railway, so as to be an inter-oceanic standard gauge line. It is also reported that Jay Gould intends to build from El Paso to this city, taking a route along the eastern slope of the Sierra Madre.

Five Miles of Logs.

GRANTSBURG, Wis., May 16.—One of the largest and hardest log jams ever known in the northwest has been forming in the St. Croix river at Eagle island. It is over five miles long and the logs are piled up in all shapes, and it contains over 150,000,000 feet. The St. Croix river is threatening to cut a new channel, and unless checked it will do so and leave the logs on dry land, whence they will have to be hauled off. A break will be made and there will be hundreds of people present to witness the dangerous attempt.

A Pine Land Trade.

SAGINAW, Mich., May 16.—Another important deal in pine lands has been made public. J. T. Hurst, of Wyandotte, having purchased from the Gratiwick, Smith & Fryer Lumber Company a tract in Crawford county, located on Sable river, containing 100,000,000 feet, the consideration being $400,000. The timber is tributary to the Twin Lakes and Bagley branches and the Michigan Central railroad, and 30,000,000 feet will be railed to Saginaw this season for immediate manufacture.

REV. B. W. MEBANE, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, left this morning for Hot Springs, Ark., to attend the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church. He was joined at Augusta, by Mr. W. A. Talliaferro, lay delegate from Ebenezer Presbytery. Mr. Mebane will be absent until June 1st. In the meantime, Rev. Martin Luther, of Mayslick, will conduct services at the Central Presbyterian Church every Sunday evening. No preaching on Sunday morning.

Says the Ashland Signal: "The Presbyterian minister at Mt. Sterling worked hard during the fire in that place, and assisted others in saving the Christian Church from being burned. After the fire was over the Presbyterian minister got off a good joke on the Christian brethren by saying that their church was saved by water, but that it was sprinkled on it."

FRANK BROWN, one of the Cincinnati excursionists yesterday, was in such a hurry coming up the grade that he jammed his head against the viaduct and cut a big gash in his forehead. He formerly lived here.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

[Friday.]
With small offerings the week's business closed with a firm, steady market showing no change from preceding days of the week. Common trash, lugs and non-descript are in active demand at full prices. A steady demand is shown for common and medium to good leaf, and this kind is selling well.
Of the 88 hds (new) 3 sold from $2.30 to $3.80, 22 from $4 to $5.90, 39 from $6 to $7.90, 14 from $8 to $9.30, 10 from $10 to $13.75.
Of the 54 hds (old) 5 sold from $2 to $3.50, 8 from $4 to $5.35, 31 from $6 to $7.80, 8 from $8 to $9.50, and 2 at $10 to $11.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.
[Cincinnati Price Current, May 12.]
The Western packing for the week has been 255,000 hogs, compared with 220,000 the preceding week, and 210,000 for corresponding period last year. The total from March 1 is 1,990,000, against 2,135,000 last year; decrease, 145,000 hogs. The larger supply has been readily taken by the packers and shippers, and prices average about 10c per 100 lbs. higher than a week ago. It has been apprehended that as soon as roads are in better condition there will be a large increase in the marketing, but the current receipts seem to suggest that farmers in districts where excessive moisture has interfered with planting operations have managed to get their stock to shipping points in goodly numbers.

The trade for product has been good, which has been calculated to sustain prices of hogs. So far the consuming demand is concerned, the trade is in a healthy position, but speculative interest is unimportant. The week's export clearances of product were of liberal volume; for lard the movement was decidedly in excess of corresponding time last year. At the close prices show but a moderate change in comparison with a week ago at Chicago.

THE WIND'S WORK.

Wreck and Ruin Wrought By a Storm Early Sunday Morning.

The Damage Confined Principally to Barns and Other Outbuildings List of the Sufferers.

This section was visited by a fearful wind storm early Sunday morning that proved very destructive in the country just southwest and west of Maysville.

The towering hills served as a protection for Maysville and but little damage was done in this city.

It was about 9 o'clock when the clouds in the western sky became very dark and threatening. Ten or fifteen minutes later the storm broke on the city in all its fury. The rain fell in torrents, and the clatter of window shutters and the raging wind was so threatening that some few people sought shelter in the cellars of their homes.

The storm lasted but a few minutes. In this city the roof of Mr. Omar Dodson's five-story building was slightly damaged, one corner of it being lifted from its fastenings. The fire-wall between J. H. Rogers & Co.'s and John N. Thomas' business houses was blown down. M. C. Hutchison had a new house on Forest avenue, Sixth ward, unroofed. The First National Bank's eagle and sign was blown over on the roof. Some windows were blown in and other slight damage done.

The greatest destruction was wrought between this city and Washington and in the Forman and Downing neighborhoods. On Mrs. Dr. Morgan's farm one barn containing 20,000 pounds of tobacco on stick was completely wrecked. Wm. Forman had one barn badly damaged. At Thomas Forman's one end of a barn was blown down and otherwise damaged. In same neighborhood F. H. Traxel lost a barn and 15,000 pounds of tobacco. The tobacco belonged to him and two tenants and they had refused an offer of 10 cents for it. At Mrs. Newdigate's residence the porch was blown down.

Mr. John Armstrong had one barn wrecked and another unroofed. His buggy was destroyed and a lot of agricultural implements damaged. His loss is about $800. He was insured for $500 in the Springfield, Duley & Baldwin, agents.

A barn on Mr. T. C. Campbell's farm was almost entirely unroofed. It was filled with tobacco that belongs to Mr. Allen. Thirteen forest trees were uprooted in Mr. Campbell's woodland pasture.

At Judge Whitaker's home, a buggy house was blown over into his garden and twelve or thirteen fruit trees destroyed. Hon. W. H. Wadsworth's fine orchard was also badly damaged.

Mrs. John Morton also had a barn destroyed.

At the home of Thomas Downing, Jr., a buggy was completely wrecked, and a young mule was struck by a flying fence rail and badly crippled.

In all the section referred to above much damage was done to fencing. Most all the buildings above mentioned, except Mr. Armstrong's, were insured in the Farmer Home Mutual Aid Association of Mason County. The loss is the heaviest the Association has yet met with.

Thomas Kerr, of Jersey Ridge, reports the roof of his residence blown off, and says his large barn was lifted off its foundation, carried about fifty feet and turned end for end.

Perry Rudy had a barn blown down, and some out-houses and fruit trees destroyed.

John Marshall had a stable and out-house blown down, and the roof of Patrick Osborne's meat house was taken off. Thirteen large trees in a space of about a quarter of an acre on Mr. Marshall's farm were uprooted.

Later reports bring news of much destruction in the West End of the county.

John J. Thompson, of Fern Leaf, had a barn unroofed. Robert Whipples, near Minerva, had a barn containing 8,000 pounds of tobacco, destroyed. D. A. French had one barn wrecked. J. C. Pickett had two barns destroyed. A barn on T. A. Keith's farm near Tuckahoe was blown down. Scott Osborne had one barn damaged. A barn on the J. G. Bacon farm was damaged. It contained 5,000 or 6,000 pounds of tobacco grown by a Mr. Weaver. Dan W. Osborne and L. Reinhart had barns unroofed, both buildings being full of tobacco.

Mrs. Morgan's loss on barn is $1,000; insurance, $900. Tobacco—20,000 or 25,000 pounds—total loss.

Loss on barn on Traxel's place, $800; loss on tobacco about $2,000.

Tom Maher's barn and tobacco near Washington, total loss; insurance, not known.

Richard Watson, near Murphysville, lost stable and one horse.

The driver on Mt. Olivet bus reports the fence and telephone line all down from Murphysville to Washington.

Several buildings between this city and Manchester were wrecked.

Alex. Watson, near Shannon, lost a barn and had one horse killed.

The wind played havoc with W. R. Gill's woods. From seventy-five to one hundred trees uprooted.

The storm was very destructive back of Aberdeen and near Bentonville.

It is rather remarkable that not a single residence was destroyed. No loss of life reported except of some horses.

No estimate of the damage has been made, but it reaches way up in the thousands.

QUIETLY WEDDED.

Mr. Philip S. Kemper and Miss Adda Campbell Married Sunday Afternoon.

Mr. Philip S. Kemper and Miss Adda Campbell were married Sunday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Campbell, on East Fourth street. Rev. John S. Hays, D. D., officiated.

The wedding occurred under peculiarly sad circumstances. June 1st was the date selected for the nuptials. The bride's mother has been in very feeble health for some time and in the past few days her condition has been rather critical. She desired to witness the marriage, and in accordance with her wishes the ceremony was solemnized yesterday afternoon. Only members of the family were present.

The bride is the youngest daughter, and is one of Maysville's fairest and most accomplished young ladies. The groom belongs to one of Cincinnati's old and honored families. He located in Maysville a few months ago, and became a member of the Maysville Carriage Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemper will reside on Market street in the residence lately vacated by Mr. Thomas M. Green.

THERE are 1,165 patients at the Keeley Institute Dwight, Ill., at present, as follows: Women, 200; traveling men, 290; lawyers, 190; farmers, 100; doctors, 67; ministers, 18; clerks, 300.

THE old ferryboat Gretna Green will be dismantled as soon as Captain Phister's new boat, the Laurence, receives her overhauling. The new boat is being painted throughout, and otherwise improved.

THE marriage of Dr. Alex. Wallingford and Miss Sallie Overton will take place Wednesday, June 1st, at 2 p. m., at the home of Miss Overton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Overton, near Flemingsburg.

WHEN you start out to select a wedding present for a friend, don't fail to call at Ballenger's jewelry store. He has an elegant lot of solid silverware and other articles very appropriate for such gifts.

SHOT DOWN.

Preston Kookendoffer Murdered at Carlisle Saturday Night.

Two Prominent Citizens Make Targets of Each Other at Moorefield.

A couple of gentlemen who came down from Carlisle yesterday brought the news of two murderous affrays in Nicholas County on Saturday.

The first one occurred at Moorefield Saturday afternoon, the participants being Jet C. Irvin and J. J. Lambert, both prominent citizens. There had been trouble between the two for some time, and it is said several threatening letters had passed between them concerning some members of Lambert's family.

Saturday afternoon, the two men met in S. C. Sander's warehouse, and in a very short time the old trouble was brought up. Just what passed between them has not been learned, but Lambert soon had his pistol out and opened fire on Irvin. The latter's weapon was under a handkerchief and some papers in his pocket, and before he succeeded in getting it out, Lambert had fired four shots. His aim was wild, however, and Irvin was unharmed, but his last shot shattered the bones of Irvin's right arm.

When Irvin's right arm was broken he seized the pistol with his left hand and emptied its contents at Lambert. Two of the balls struck Lambert in the forehead, but fortunately the shots glanced and the missiles ranged around each side of the head. Lambert was stunned, and Irvin went at him, and would have beaten out his brain's had not friends interfered and put a stop to the terrible affray.

Irvin's right arm was so badly shattered that it is thought amputation will be necessary. He was not injured much otherwise. Lambert's wounds are not considered very serious. He is forty-five or fifty years of age, while Irvin is about twenty-five. The affair is greatly deplored.

PRESTON KOOKENDOFFER KILLED.

Carlisle was the scene of a fatal shooting Saturday night. Shortly after 10 o'clock the citizens were startled by a pistol shot that rang out on the still night air. A gentleman named Tilton who lived just opposite where the shot was fired ran across the street and found a young man by the name of Preston Kookendoffer stretched out on the pavement with a fearful wound in the forehead.

The ball had entered almost in the center of the forehead and rang down, coming out behind. Death had resulted almost instantly.

Kookendoffer was about thirty-five years old and unmarried. It is not known who killed him. He lived in Bramlette precinct, and two parties who live in the same vicinity are suspected of the killing. They are John McKee, aged twenty-five, and Ben Price, aged about twenty-one. They were all in Carlisle Saturday evening, and were seen in a saloon at 8 o'clock.

The character of the wound shows that Kookendoffer was shot by some one on horseback. The murderer was heard as he dashed out of town just after the killing was done.

JEALOUS BRITONS.

How Englishmen Feel About the Inman Vessels.

ALMOST A PANIC IN LONDON.

England's Supremacy of the Sea Fastly Waning—The Government Anxious to Discourage Other Steamship Lines from Following the Example of the Inman. Other Foreign News.

LONDON, May 14.—No other event in many months has caused such great amazement and disgust in the British mind as the transfer of the ocean racers of the Inman line to the American flag. The average Englishman regards British supremacy on the seas as so thoroughly established that it is impossible for him to understand why any vessel could be willing, under any circumstances, to transfer its allegiance and accept the flag of any other power. This is the patriotic view.

For the business world in Great Britain the Inman incident has an aspect even darker, as it is more practical. Merchants and others see in this transfer the cloud no bigger than a man's hand that foreshadows the loss of England's supremacy and the building up of American commerce at the expense of the British.

The commercial and industrial growth of the United States was already regarded with deep jealousy even before this incident. Now there is almost a panic. The government will have to take some step to prevent or discourage other steamship lines from following the example of the Inman, but the ministers appear to be in confusion as to what step to take.

A Remarkable Medical Trial.

BERLIN, May 16.—A trial that has created intense interest in medical circles has just been concluded at Cassela, capital of Hesse-Nassau. Dr. Weiderhold, director of the hospital for nervous diseases at that place, was charged with mistreating a patient, the wife of Consul General Zachmann. The doctor admitted that he had boxed Mrs. Zachmann's ears, beat her with a stick and whipped her because she screamed and moaned as though she was suffering from great pain. She was suffering from hysteria and her pains, the doctor said, were entirely imaginary. The punishment he inflicted upon her, he contended, was the best treatment for hysteria, and everything he had done was for her benefit. Much evidence was given for and against this course of treatment for a nervous disease, but the court decided that the accused was guilty of mistreatment, and sentenced him to three months' imprisonment.

Justice for Americans.

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, May 16.—The action brought by five American tourists—Messrs. Hahn, Mumford, Coates, Griffith and Baker—against the federal authorities to recover $5,000 damages for their illegal arrest at Berne, on Aug. 8, 1889, was decided Saturday. The federal court before which the case was tried admitted that the plaintiffs had been wrongfully arrested, and that there had been irregularities in the subsequent treatment. The court condemned the canton of Berne to pay the plaintiffs $120 each, in addition to a fine of $160, and the costs of the proceedings.

A MINISTER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Stricken Down with Heart Failure While Addressing a Sunday School.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Rev. William F. Speake, pastor of the Fourth Street Methodist Episcopal church, was stricken with heart failure while addressing the Sunday school yesterday, and died a few minutes afterward in the parsonage next door. The sudden death was a great shock to the congregation and family. Mr. Speake entered upon the pastorate of the church but two months ago, after long services as a presiding elder in the East Baltimore conference, and had already made himself deeply devoted to church work.

For four weeks past Mr. Speake has been a sufferer and was being treated for rheumatism, which the attending physician thought to be his disease. He had not been confined to his bed, however, or relinquished his duties in the pulpit. Yesterday morning the pastor attended the services of the Sunday school in the vestry of the church as usual. Towards the close of the exercises he went to the superintendent's platform and asked the school a few general questions about the lesson. Then he spoke to the school for nearly fifteen minutes, reviewing the lesson of the day. He brought the talk to a conclusion rather abruptly, and, turning to the superintendent of school, Mr. George W. Cooke, said: "I am not feeling well," and walked out to the vestibule.

In a moment his daughter came into the vestibule and found her father seated on a bench in a violent coughing fit with heavy drops of perspiration on his forehead. Miss Speake saw that her father was very ill and assisted him down the steps to the sidewalk. The sexton of the church came to her aid, and together they helped Mr. Speake into the parsonage door. Here the minister dropped into an armchair in the back parlor and asked them to unbutton his collar. After a moment he was assisted to a sofa in the front parlor and the sexton sent for medical aid.

Mrs. Speake came into the room and just after she entered the dying man gasped, "Send for a doctor." These were his last words. He lapsed into an unconscious state and breathed his last before medical aid arrived. Mr. Speake was sixty years old and a native of Baltimore. Reference to his sad and sudden death was made from every Methodist pulpit in this city last night and tributes paid to the deceased. Interment will be in Baltimore.

Mexico's New Mining Law.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 16.—The new mining law imposes a quota of $20 on each mine for title, besides an annual tax of $50 for every 10,000 square metres of surface. It is calculated that there are now 3,000 mines in operation.

OVER TWO HUNDRED KILLED.

Venezuelan Insurgents Blow Up a Camp and Slaughter the Survivors.

MARACABO, Venezuela, May 16.—Colonel Villafane's camp, in the heart of the Andes, was blown into atoms with dynamite by the insurgents. Colonel Gaudos, once an expert engineer in the service of German railroad builders of Caracas, fired the charge.

After the firing of the mine the insurgents swept down upon what was left of the 216 government troops that occupied it, and put them to death. Villafane himself is among the slain. The Venezuelans are expert in the use of dynamite. The pass at La Chita, where the camp was blown up, was undermined some two weeks ago and loaded with dynamite several nights before Colonel Villafane accepted the advice of guides to locate there.
